DO YOU HAVE A SUSPENDED DRIVERS LICENSE? DO YOU NEED TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS TO PAY YOUR PAST DUE CHILD SUPPORT?

PARENTS INVITED TO ‘LET’S SEAL A DEAL ON YOUR PAST DUE CHILD SUPPORT’ ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 7 IN ARCADIA

Parents who owe past due child support are being invited to a special community outreach event in Arcadia on Saturday, August 7 where they can make payment arrangements and have a suspended license released.

The L.A. County Child Support Services Department (CSSD) is holding “Let’s Seal A Deal on Your Past Due Child Support,” in Ayres Hall at the L.A. County Arboretum, 301 N. Baldwin Ave. in Arcadia from 9:00 a.m.—1:00 p.m..

Staff from L.A. County CSSD will be present to talk to parents about their child support cases and negotiate arrangements for past due payments. Payments can be made by cash, check or credit card.

“The Department of Child Support Services wants to help parents act responsibly in eliminating past due child support which is important for their families,” said CSSD Deputy Director Lori Cruz, who will be present at the outreach. “This is a special opportunity for parents to come in and talk to us and work out some arrangements.”

L.A. County CSSD assists families and children in L.A. County with free child support services. CSSD basic services include establishing, modifying and enforcing child support obligations including medical support. Other services include free paternity testing, collecting child support and locating parents.
